

Toastmasters Club Meeting Role – Sergeant-At-Arms (SAA) Script

Before the meeting:

1. Ensure the Meeting venue is booked, and necessary seating arrangements are in place.
2. Check for any expected guests and complete the visitor approval formalities.
3. If there is any Educational Session/PPT or Hybrid Meeting setup required, plan for the same.
4. If there is any District Officer or Toastmasters from other clubs joining the meeting, collect their names & titles.

Role Introduction:

“Hello Toastmasters, and distinguished guests, Welcome to DBS Toastmasters Club Meeting #1

My name is _____, and it is my pleasure to be the Sergeant-at-Arms for the meeting.

<We have here with us today TM _____, TM _____, TM _____> (Please confirm their attendance and title before announcing)

Before we proceed with the meeting, I would like to mention the 3 ground rules of Toastmasters Meetings.

1. Please switch off your Mobile Phones/Noise Making devices or set them on silent mode. I'll give you 10 seconds of time to do the same. Thank you.
2. Please refrain from speaking about Sex, Religion and Politics in a demeaning manner.
3. Kindly refrain crosswalk or cross talk while the speaker is on the dais.

Also, we have two more unsaid rules, which we follow in Toastmasters,

- 1) Do shake hands while taking control of the stage and while handing it back and
- 2) Please applaud whenever a speaker is coming to speak on the stage.

I would like to read out the Toastmasters Club Mission, “We provide a supportive and positive learning experience in which members are empowered to develop communication and leadership skills, resulting in greater self-confidence and personal growth.”

With this we are good to begin the DBS Toastmasters Meeting #1 and I would like to welcome the Toastmaster of the Day TM _____ on to the dais.

Over to you TM _____.”

Closure of the Meeting

<You can comment your observations on the Meeting Theme>

Hope you all enjoyed today's meeting. I would like to request 1or 2 Toastmasters/Guests to share their experience.

With this I would like to declare the closure of DBS Toastmasters Meeting #1. Looking forward to greater participation for our next meeting. Thank you.
