

Toastmasters Club Meeting Role - Timer's Script

Before the meeting:

Ensure you collect the Timer Cards from Club Sergeant-At-Arms.

Role Introduction:

“Greetings Mr./Madam Toastmaster, Fellow Toastmasters, and Guests.

I am _____, playing the role of Timer in today's meeting.

One of the skills Toastmasters practice is expressing a thought within a specific time. The timer is responsible for monitoring time for each meeting segment and each speaker.

As Timer, I will time the Prepared Speeches, Table Topics Speakers, and Evaluators. I will be doing this using the green, yellow, and red flags, which denote specific times.

The Prepared Speakers have

4-6 minutes (if it is an Ice Breaker Speech).

I will be showing the Green Card  at 4 mins,

Yellow Card at 5 mins

Red Card  at 6 mins and the speaker will be getting 30 seconds of grace each.

5-7 minutes (for speeches other than an Ice Breaker).

I will be showing the Green Card  at 5 mins,

Yellow Card  at 6 mins

Red Card  at 7 mins and the speaker will be getting 30 seconds of grace time to complete the speech.

The Table Topics Speakers have 1-2 minutes.

I will be showing the Green Card at 1 min,

Yellow Card  at 1.30 mins

Red Card  at 2 mins and the speaker will be getting 30 seconds of grace time to complete the speech.

The Evaluators have 2-3 minutes.

I will be showing the Green Card  at 2 mins,

Yellow Card at 2.30 mins,

Red Card  at 3 mins and the Evaluator will be getting 30 seconds of grace time to complete the Evaluation.

Towards the end of the meeting, I will be presenting the Timer's report when called upon by the General Evaluator. Thank you.

Over to you, General Evaluator TM _____”
